A CHANGE OF VENUE. Impossible to Get a Jury to Try Young

Nutt. Unionrown, Pa., Dec. 6.—The in-tensity of the feeling aroused in the minds of the people of Fayette county by the Dukes-Nutt tragedies has been shown in a remarkable manner. James Nutt was arrainged for trial, and, out of a panel of eighty, only three jurors could be secured, and they were reluctant. The balance, without any hesitation, said their convictions were too firm to be shaken by any evidence. In despair Judge Wilson ordered a change of venue, and the next time Nutt appears in court, which is thought will be in about two weeks, it will be in Allegheny county. At the close of the session and after adjournment of the court, Senator Voorhees, one of the attorneys for Nutt, appreached Mrs. Nutt and remarked: "Mrs. Nutt, you may return to your home and calm your worst fears. We will undoubtedly be able to return your boy to you a free man in a very few weeks at most."

B. J. KENBALL & Co., Genis: I seel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to yet. I have had the piles and projapsups of the rectum for five years, for the pias three years I have not been as the piles and projapsups of the rectum for five years, for the pias three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I taked everything without relief, but after ten day's use of Kendail's Spavin ture, I have hossed or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a discass almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinden limiments and had it cut open without any benefit. Haw your all verticement and bought a bottle of Lendail's Spavin Cure and original my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had discappeared. Thinking that slimiment that would down a law to might benede more. I tried it as a last rewort. With grattinde and best visions for yourself. With grattinde and best visions for yourself. Reasons Why You Feel Badly.

Because your stomach is not doing its work properly. Because your liver is out of order, and wants righting.
Because your blood is thin, and wants iron in it. Because you are troubled with nervous aches and pains. Re ause you are vexed with languor and debility.

All these Reasons Can be Set Aside by the Use of Brown's Iron Bitters, which will Tone up your enfeebled stomach, and help to digest. Refresh your wearied liver, and put it in splendid order. Enrich your watery blood, and give it a rich red color. Calm your worried nerves, and give them restful peace. Strengthen your whole system and drive debility and languor out.

Considering that any man who has a dollar may buy of the nearest druggist a bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, there is no reason why people should continue to feel badly, just for the fun of it.
